

An evening on Mount Everest

To help the kids of our region!

Friday, October 26 - 6pm
Main chalet - Camp Fortune

To the benefit of

Come hear the stories and see the film of these four climbers and help contribute to a very good regional cause.

Dawa Nuru Sherpa, father of three (3), has reached the summit of Mount Everest 5 times. He has also climbed many of the 8,000 meter peaks in the Himalayas in Nepal.

Jean Ricard dreamed of climbing Everest for 10 years before he finally was able to make his attempt. He combined the climb with raising funds for kids in the National Capital region.

"Come and try to cross ladders with mountain boots and crampons - like on Everest"

For information and tickets

CHEO Foundation: 613 737-2780

CSSS de Gatineau Foundation
(Benoit Brunet): 819 595-6108

Meagan McGrath became the youngest Canadian woman to complete the 7 summits, the highest summit on each of the continents. She tells of her experience of rescuing a Nepalese climber on Everest in May 2007.

Jean-François Carrey became the youngest Canadian to stand on the summit of Mount Everest in May 2006. This adventurer and guide now tells his story to kids to motivate them to pursue their dreams.

Tickets: $95 (dinner and conference)
Table of eight: 750 $ (visibility)

Radio-Canada / CBC has prepared a short film of the Everest for Kids expedition and will be showing it that evening.